Married Love, or Love in Marriage

Married love is powerfully embodied in the spouses' sexual relationship, when they most fully express what it means to become "one body" (Gn 2:24) or "one flesh" (Mk 10:8, Mt 19:6). The Church teaches that the sexual union of husband and wife is meant to express the full meaning of love, its power to bind a couple together and its openness to new life.

I Didn't Love My Wife When We Got Married | HuffPost Life

"I read a story about a study that said first-time marrieds after 50 are about 7 in every 1,000 people." I can't argue with math, but please consider that this statistic reflects people's lack of desire to get married for the first time when they're over 50. It doesn't mean that 56-year-olds aren't meeting people they could marry. I would assume they have less reason to make that kind of legal ...
