intelligence" or the sought. However, he never showed any of that.

V is for Villain by Peter Moore - Goodreads

V is For Villain shows that everything is grey and not just black and white. I never imagined that I would be reading a novel where I would actually be cheering on the "bad guy". The world that Peter Moore has built in V is For Villain is one that readers will quickly get caught up in.

I really wish Peter Moore would write a sequel. The way it ended (not giving any spoilers, sorry!) paves the perfect path for a sequel no matter how much time has passed. Even though it's been years, Peter would be able to write in the present and just include flashbacks throughout the book giving us a recap to make up for the time difference.
